TASMANIA'S WINE PRODUCING REGIONS

Whilst Tasmania is only recognised as one wine region by most Australia, like all other states we have defined wine growing regions within the state, all offering their own distinctive soil types and flavours profiles that characterise the wines from all these regions.

At AWU Delicious, whilst focusing on the southern local regions of Coal River, Derwent and the Huon River have hand chosen wines from various regions around the state to offer you a true Tasmanian wine journey.
